

Image not found or type unknown

Jewish Cemetery Bad Sauerbrunn

Data

Description

The Jewish cemetery forms part of the municipal cemetery in Bad Sauerbrunn. It was established in 1908 by the Mattersburg Chewra Kadischa and was mainly used to bury Jewish guests who had been attending the spa for treatments. The exact number of original gravestones cannot be determined; at present there are around ten stones. The ceremonial hall has been demolished. The cemetery is freely accessible to the public.

Eisenstädterstraße 58, 7202 Bad Sauerbrunn, Burgenland | show on map

Cadastral Data

KG 30114, EZ 55, GSt 287/1, TZ 3659/2008, protected monument

Area in m<sup>2</sup>

788

Owner

Jewish Community Vienna

Photos

Bad\_Sauerbrunn\_Israelitischer\_Friedhof\_\(01\).jpg

Bad\_Sauerbrunn\_Israelitischer\_Friedhof\_\(02\).jpg

Bad\_Sauerbrunn\_Israelitischer\_Friedhof\_\(03\).jpg