Jewish Cemetery Deutsch-Wagram

Data

Description

Founded in 1866, the cemetery no longer has any gravestones. It was looked after by the Floridsdorf Minyan Association until 1938, after which the property was expropriated and given to the Deutsche Reichsbahn for its train operations. There is a memorial plaque on a mound of earth behind the entrance gate. Extensive repair work was carried out in 2021. The cemetery is locked, the key is available from the local municipal authority.
