Jewish Cemetery Groß-Enzersdorf

Data

Description

This unassuming Jewish cemetery is located in the midst of a residential estate. Its entrance can be found in the remains of a ceremonial hall situated at the side of the road. The majority of the 65 headstones line the cemetery wall surrounded by abundant greenery. The cemetery was established in 1880. During the Nazi period, most of the gravestones were shattered or removed. The gate is unlocked, the cemetery can be freely accessed by the public.
