Jewish Cemetery Knittelfeld

Data

Description

The cemetery, built in 1908 by the local Chewra Kadischa, is situated the southern outskirts of Knittelfeld. It served as a burial site for the small Jewish community of Knittelfeld. During the Nazi period, the cemetery was destroyed; following its restitution in the 1950s, a number of headstones were returned and reinstated.

Address

Lendgasse 17a, 8720 Knittelfeld |  show on map

Province

Styria

Cadastral Data

KG 65116, EZ 528, GSt 719/3, TZ 1727/2008, protected monument

Area in m²

888

Owner

Jewish Community Vienna

Photos

 Israelischer_Friedhof1.jpg

 Israelischer_Friedhof2.jpg

 Israelischer_Friedhof3.jpg

 Israelitischer_Friedhof_Knittelfeld.jpg

Restoration

The owner of this cemetery has not filed an application to receive a subsidy from the Fund for the Restoration of the Jewish Cemeteries in Austria.