Jewish Cemetery Innsbruck Westfriedhof

Data

Description

In 1864, the Innsbruck Jewish community was given an area of the municipal Western Cemetery to establish a new Jewish cemetery. It contains, among other things, graves of Jewish soldiers from all parts of the Monarchy who fell in Tyrol during World War I and a memorial plaque for the victims of the Shoa. Guided tours can be organized through the Jewish Community in Innsbruck if required. The cemetery is freely accessible to the public.
